

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

PSALM 93

Key Takeaways

- 1.) God reigns: He is eternal, existing before time and continuing after it.
- 2.) God rules: He has authority over all creation, including natural forces.
- 3.) God reveals: As we grow closer to Him, we understand more about His character.

Discussion Questions

- 1.) The sermon mentions that we often focus on what God does rather than who God is. How can we shift our perspective to appreciate God's character more?
- 2.) Reflect on the concept of God's eternal nature. How does understanding this impact your faith and daily life?
- 3.) PZ talks about how we struggle to grasp God's sovereignty because we're used to limited authority in our world. How can we cultivate a mindset that truly acknowledges God's ultimate authority?
- 4.) Discuss the story of Jesus calming the storm (Mark 4:35-41). How does this demonstrate God's rule over creation, and what does it mean for our personal struggles?
- 5.) The sermon suggests that areas of our lives where we struggle most might be areas where we're trying to maintain control. Can you identify any such areas in your life? How might surrendering control to God change things?
- 6.) How does knowing that God is intimately aware of details in our lives (like the number of hairs on our head) affect your view of His sovereignty?

Practical Applications

- 1.) This week, try to praise God daily for who He is, not just for what He does. Keep a journal of these praises.
- 2.) Identify one area of your life where you feel "stuck." Commit to surrendering control of this area to God through prayer and action.
- 3.) Look for opportunities to shine the light of Jesus in your daily life, whether it's through acts of kindness, sharing your testimony, or inviting someone to church. Be intentional about maximizing your impact for God's kingdom.
- 4.) Memorize a verse from Psalm 93 that resonates with you. Reflect on it throughout the week.
- 5.) Practice recognizing God's sovereignty in everyday situations. Share examples with the group next time you meet.
